

PHASE III RESERVATION POLICIES

EFFECTIVE 7/6/2020 UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

- Reservations are required for all parties, please call ahead
- All parties require a credit card number to hold the reservation
- You can make a reservation for a table inside or outside. In case of inclement weather, all outside tables will be moved inside. If you do not wish to dine inside in this case, please call to cancel or postpone.
- To increase ventilation per state and public health guidelines, our indoor dining areas will have open windows with screens in lieu of air conditioning. Please take this into consideration when planning your visit.
- Due to limited seating, if you do not call in advance to cancel your reservation and do not show, your credit card will be charged a $35 per person "no call, no show" fee
- Reservations will be given a two hour time limit per table
- The size of a party seated at a table cannot exceed 6 people
- If you arrive early for your reservation, please stay in your car until the time of your reservation (no bar or waiting area permitted)
- Masks are required while on our premises, with the exception of children under 2. You may remove masks only while seated at the table and eating and drinking, but you must wear your mask while speaking to any Blue Heron staff, even while seated at your table.
- Do not come if you are feeling unwell, including COVID-19 symptoms (fever of 100.3 or higher, shortness of breath, cough, new loss of scent or taste) as well as any symptoms that could generate respiratory droplets, including a cough or sneeze from allergies.
- All tables will be positioned so to maintain at least a 6 foot distance from all other tables. All customers must remain seated except for traveling in and out and using the restroom. Please keep your kids seated at the table at all times. No guests may be served food or drinks at the bar.
- Alcohol-based hand sanitizers with at least 60% alcohol will be provided at entrance/exit and on each table for your use.

We look forward to your visit!
